Questions and statements

The following questions and statements were made by those present:

1. Cllr Bourke commented on the progress of the new pipeline must be getting close to hitting Morundah. The Director Engineering advised approximately 40 kilometres has been completed. There were some issues with the Riverina Water trencher requiring it to be sent away for repair and recently utilising a contractor to complete a section of the pipeline. CEO advised he will be briefing Manex soon on a celebration of the completion of the pipeline in either August or September 2025 to turn on of the water.
2. Cllr Bourke asked if there had been an increase from farmers during the dry period to connect into the network. CEO confirmed there have been additional enquiries made. Cllr Bourke also made enquiries regarding if there was a legal way to get right of way to access water through another property. CEO advised Riverina Water prefers to use road reserves but where that isn't possible will use easements through private properties.
3. Cllr Parker flagged With Riverina Water discussions with Greater Hume Council regarding future water supply options.
4. Mr Crakanthorp presented to the meeting a Sponsorship Request from The Rock Memorial Bowling Club for $500 for consideration. The Chair and Deputy Chair have declared conflicts of interest. The Board supported the sponsorship request.
5. Mr Crakanthorp advised that he will be commencing 5 weeks leave on 7 July, Director Engineering will be on leave for 3 weeks commencing 7 July. The Director Corporate Services will be Acting CEO for 3 weeks, when Director Engineering returns from leave, will assume Acting CEO position until the CEO's return on 11 August.
